WOMEN'S BROWN'S BATTERS

THE BEST TONIC
 This medicine combines food with pure vegetable tonics and is invaluable for those peculiar to women, and all the best sanitary line. It cures the system, restores the blood, stimulates the appetite, strengthens the nerves, and restores the system, and makes the blood smooth.
 It does not excite the system, but builds it up.
 It is the best medicine for women, and produces constipation, and is the best medicine
 for women, and is the best medicine for women.
 Mrs. Elizabeth H. Brown, of New York, writes:
 "I have used Brown's Batters for several years,
 and it has done more for me than any other medicine
 I have ever used. It has cured my constipation, and made my blood smooth. It has also made my system healthy, and my nerves strong. I can now do all the work I wish to do, and I feel as well as ever. I highly recommend this medicine to all women who are suffering from any of the above troubles."

PRELLER'S MURDERER

TRACED THROUGH SAN FRANCISCO AND UP TO HIS DEPARTURE.

Maxwell Makes Merry with Henry—The Shot Gun's Play—Murder and Suicide.
 "You, I am Noah Merriman, and I Killed My Wife."

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—A very important clue has been unearthed here respecting W. H. Lemmon Maxwell, the supposed murderer of Arthur H. Preller in St.
 Louis April 6th. It is now known that this man, who is believed to be the same J. G. D.
 Angier as registered, did not sleep at the Palace hotel during the night he was registered. Under the influence of wine he became very talkative at a house which he visited.

The proprietors of the house say his visitor introduced him as a Frenchman, and recounted many warlike deeds. He showed her a diamond ring with deep claws settling. The diamond was about three quarters of an inch in diameter, and of a fine quality. The woman's further evidence of the large quantity of jewelry of which he was possessed, he showed her a chain about one inch links, the alternate links being gold and platinum. The woman also observed that he had a diamond ring set with a large diamond. During the early part of the evening he spoke in broken English, but on looking over a photograph album suddenly ejaculated in most excellent English, "Oh, that's Henry Irving and Miss Terry," on seeing the photographs
 mentioned.

An unfastened silver watch which he brought from St. Louis was exchanged by him here for another, and has been found.
 On the inside of the brass cap that covers the works is written in ink, "H. H. Brooks."
 The importance of this discovery is that the name is the same as subscribed to the ticket, purchased from the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad in St. Louis and collected on the train from the man, afterward registered here as C.
 Angier. A comparison of the writing on the name on the ticket and on the watch case shows it to have been done by the same person, only a slight difference being observed in the letter "H" in the word "Brooks."
 The query is raised whether H. M. Brooks is not the correct name of the supposed mur-derer, and not Walter H. Brooks. Maxwell Police officials believe the man's name to be High Maxwell Brooks, their theory being partly based on the fact that the two men both appear in both names. The man was traced to every place he visited while in this city, and the result confirms the previous assertion that he left on the Australian steamer.

THE SHOT GUN'S PLAY.

Attempted Murder, and Then Suicide on His Wife's Grave.

St. LOUIS, April 23.—Emil Moncourt was found in the Centerville cemetery with his head shot off, his wife's grave, while he had shot himself. He was still alive, although suffering from a fatal wound. Mon-court attempted to kill his brother-in-law, Andrew Touche, who was living at Con-treville, six miles out of East St. Louis, at the home of the latter.

After failing in his attempt to murder
 Touche, Moncourt went to the Centerville grave yard, where his wife and Moncourt's
 sister were buried about nine months ago,
 and at the grave of the dead woman shot himself.

Mr. Touche arose early and went out to attend to his daily duties about the farm.
 While chopping some wood in the rear of his house, Moncourt, who is supposed to have reconciled himself about the previous day
 after the night, sprang out from behind a shed
 and leveling a shot gun at Touche's head, took aim and fired. Touche, however,
 when he saw Moncourt level his gun at him,
 threw himself to the ground, and the charge
 did not strike him. He then jumped up quickly and dodged behind a wood pile, fearing that Moncourt would discharge the second barrel. His surmise was correct, and he had not executed the movement as quickly as he did he would undoubtedly have been killed. As it was the shot was whizzing by in close proximity to his head. Moncourt seeing that he had failed, the second time took to flight immediately.
 Touche was too frightened to institute any pursuit, and nothing was seen of the attempted murderer until he was found in Centreville cemetery lying beside his wife's grave with the left side of his face blown away and his shot gun by his side.
 Father Merfies, pastor of the village church, was the first to discover him. When asked to give the reason why he had attempted to murder his brother-in-law and to take his own life he refused to reply.

"YES, I AM NOAH MERRIMAN."

"I Killed My Wife and I Suppose I'll Now Kill Myself."

St. LOUIS, April 23.—A sensation was created in the court of correction when the prosecuting attorney announced that he would call for the record of a husband of George Cole, alias John Johnson, as the prisoner identified as Noah Merriman, who murdered his wife in St. Louis, Mo., a week ago last Friday. After killing her he took the body and came to St. Louis a week ago, broke into an Iron Mountain car, and went to the Centerville cemetery and shot her. "Yes," said he, "I am Noah Merriman. I

SECRETARY AYATOH has asked for the resignation of over sixty consuls.

PERNIA has offered England 50,000 soldiers in case she has a war with Russia.

The gross earnings of the Union Pacific railroad system for the past year were $25,791,000; the expenses and taxes were $15,113,000, leaving the net earnings $10,678,140.

The Park City Times says: There is no Deputy United States Marshal here now, nor has there been for some time, and the festive moonshiner revels with delight at the neglect in not providing an officer. The United States Commissioner is ready to try them, but there is no one to catch them. Capt. Gross will no doubt soon remedy this state of affairs.

This United States Supreme Court has rendered a decision in the Clawson case from Utah Territory. Under the Edmunds Anti-Polygamy act, Clawson was excluded from jury service on the ground that he was a bigamist. The case was appealed, and in the Supreme Court the action of the Territorial Court in excluding him was sustained, thus maintaining the validity of the Edmunds law.

A DEBATE says: Evans, Arthur, Low, and Grant are the big four names prominent in the order printed as Republican candidates as Governor of New York, upon the theory that a Republican Governor of New York must have ability to fight the President of the United States for political supremacy, and that a Republican majority in that State this fall will have such a bearing upon election in other States next fall that a majority of Republican Congressmen will be elected, which would be recognized as a popular rebuke to the administration. With Mr. Evans as the leader in this line of policy, what would be more natural than that he should lead in the next Presidential fight?

(Lexington Transcript.)
In many towns an unusual degree of attention to cleanliness has been given this year by the local authorities, owing to the belief that America may experience an early visitation of cholera. Doubtless the earnest work of Secretary McCrackin, of the National Health, has had an influence in this direction. In some towns the local boards of health, organized under the State Board, have been active. Such precautions are worth the expense incurred, even if no cholera appears. At every appearance of cholera in America during this century Kentucky has been a sufferer. In 1822 the cholera visited Louisville, Lexington, Frankfort, Mayville and other towns. It returned in 1832, when 119 deaths occurred at Russellville, 61 at Versailles, and many others elsewhere. In 1839 the cholera extended to Lexington, where 14 minutes of the frantic epidemic died of it. During one week in July, 1850, there were 113 deaths from cholera at Louisville and 25 at Frankfort. There were returns in 1851 and the next year. In 1853 the plague extended from Brooksville to Hickman. More deaths occurred in 1853 and a few in 1859. In 1870 the extent of the plague was more general than before, deaths having been reported from the most remote towns, including Lancaster and Columbus.

Diabetes Cured.

New Orleans Picayune, Jan. 20, 1884.

Mr. Mathias Doll, business place No. 23 North Peters street, residence Royal street, between Jeanne and Bartholomew, New Orleans, has been a most interesting sufferer from kidney trouble (diabetes) for the last six long and weary years. He said to us: "Even earlier than that I frequently suffered from pain in the back, and frequent making of water, but gave it no thought until about the time stated, when the almost constant desire to make water became unendurable. The pain in the back, and sometimes in the legs, made me so lame at times that I could scarcely walk. I consulted one of the best doctors in this city, and was under his constant treatment for one entire year without benefit of the least benefit. I then consulted from time to time, during the last five or six years, six other physicians, each one standing in the front rank of the medical profession in New Orleans, and though I sometimes was a little relieved of some excruciating suffering, yet upon the whole I was not only no better, but in many respects much worse. My limbs became so swollen and sore that I could not cross my legs when sitting on a chair, and of which, they said, was caused by diabetes. I then tried some highly lauded patent medicine. But they all turned out to be humbugs. I had given up all hopes of ever getting relief, much less being cured, when I noticed in the papers some wonderful cures that PERUNA had made in this city, as prescribed by Dr. Hartman, giving the name and address of each person treated. I called to see him; he is not over three weeks ago. I am so much better that if I would not improve any more, I would not for any amount that I had not placed myself under his treatment. All my pain and lameness is gone. The swelling and stiffness in my legs has disappeared, and instead of making water every fifteen minutes, I now make it once in three hours during the day, and only twice in a whole night. I am, indeed, quite well again."

See how well get the PERUNA at once and take it as its printed label directs, or, if you think this is only an advertisement, and not strictly true, call and see me and see for yourself."

Mrs. Hulda Riple, Smeethport, McKean county, Pa., writes: "Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus, O., I have used your PERUNA and it has done me a great deal of good. Have recommended it to many of my friends, who have expressed themselves as wonderfully pleased with its virtues."

The Louisville Evening Times, of April 30th, says:

Some time ago the fact was made public that a fortune of $50,000 in the bank of England, and from certain known facts it was believed that the fortune was in this city, and an investigation was made to the proof of this theory. After a tedious labor it has finally been settled that the descendants of the Levi family of this city are the heirs to the English fortune. A few weeks ago Captain E. C. Levy, the veteran steamboatman, received the original papers, which finally, after a long and arduous journey, he brought to this city. He called for a meeting of the heirs to appoint an agent to take charge of the money. In answer, the following named heirs met at Captain Levy's office this morning: B. C. Levy, Willie Levy, John George Levy, E. E. Levy and J. C. Levy, of this city; J. C. Levy, of Jefferson County; James Levy and Mrs. Joseph Koro, of New Albany; J. H. Levy, of Louisville; and M. C. Levy, of Moccasin, Ky. Captain Levy was elected Chairman, and E. E. Levy Secretary. The meeting adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon to meet their arrival.

Mr. Levy says there is no question as to their right to the fortune, and that they merely have to go through the formality of being recognized by the proper authorities in England.

Better Than Oil.

MIDDLETON'S ADDRESS.

TELLING THE TROOPS THAT THEY MUST DO THIS AND NOT THAT.

Canadian Government Attacked—Driven Out and Massacred—Charges of Drunkenness, Filthiness, Larceny, Cruelty and Mutiny—Notes.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 23.—Gen. Middleton issued at Clark's Crossing the following brigade orders:

The major general commanding wishes to address a few words to the men previous to advancing. In the first place, he wishes to thank them all, from senior officers and all others officials down, for the cheerfulness with which they have borne really hard work and terrible weather; for the splendid marching they have made under numerous difficulties; and for their general good conduct. Regarding the enemy they are about to meet, nothing but the formation of the country can enable them to face such a force as this, for we are better armed, better provisioned, and shoot as well if not better than they can. The only advantage they can possibly have over us is their natural instinct for taking cover, and we must watch them closely. The men must be civil and obedient to the officers of the troops, and the major general commanding has no fears of the result. He need hardly say that no cruelty—none of the old Indian no quarter—can be thought of or tolerated, and the greatest care must be taken that no women or children who may unfortunately chance to be in the vicinity shall be injured in any way. Officers and men are forbidden to enter houses or farms that may be passed, or take anything from them.

A telegram from Swift current states that the Midland battalion has reached the South Saskatchewan Crossing. The right wing of the battalion will form an escort for the pioneers carrying provisions, ammunition and Gatling guns on the dangerous trip down the Saskatchewan to Clark's Crossing.

The Government Attacked.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 23.—In the house the minister of the interior stated that Col. Galt had, before leaving his garrison at Calgary, obtained leave of absence from his commanding officer, Gen. Strange, to proceed to Montreal on urgent personal business and would return west immediately.

Mr. Blake charged the government with wilful delay in bringing down the correspondence in connection with the half-breed claims, which, he said, the government were purposely keeping back so that the country might not see with whom rested the responsibility for the lamentable state of affairs in the Northwest. Sir John Macdonald, in reply, charged Mr. Blake with inciting the rebels to insurrection by incendiary speeches. He promised to have all the papers relating to the half-breed and Indian grievances laid before parliament at once, here they were not of a confidential nature.

According to Lieut. Gov. Dewdney's own statement, he made a report to the government last August, pointing out the uprising which was imminent if the half-breed claims were not adjusted. This report, which the opposition desire to secure, is said to have been marked confidential.

Wholesale Massacre.

BATTLEFORD, April 23.—Scouts from Fort Pitt report finding it abandoned and badly wrecked. An Indian told them there had been a fight, and two of the police were killed, and that the police and others in the fort had taken to boats in the hope of reaching Battleford. They have been out five days, and should have been here long ago.

Looks as if the whole party had been captured or killed from the river banks. The fort contained, besides the police, under Inspector Dickens, who is the third son of Charles Dickens; Factor McLean of the Hudson Bay company, and his family of eight persons; and James Simpson, Stanley Simpson, W. B. Cameron, and Du Fresnois, employees, the Rev. C. Quinn and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mann and three children; Alfred Quinn and several others. The story of the escape is extremely improbable, as it is not likely such a large party would be driven out of the fort and allowed to escape.

The Indians said that Riel threatened to take Battleford soon. Troops were promised for relief three weeks ago, but none have yet turned up. The river is low and no troops seem likely to arrive. Col. Morris is putting a trench around the barracks for greater protection. The Indians threaten an attack.

Nether Scenes.

TORONTO, Ont., April 23.—Bergeant Nelson, of the grenadiers, who has just returned from the Northwest an invalid, charges the officers and men of the fifty-fifth battalion with drunkenness, filthiness, larceny, cruelty and mutiny.

Winnebago Troubles.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 23.—An address by the Winnebago rights association, John Hatherland, president, H. E. Deany, secretary, has been received from Pierre, Dakota. It recites the history of the Arthur executive order opening the reservation and the order rescinding it by President Cleveland; and assails the act of the latter in strong terms. It calls upon settlers to hold meetings April 25, at Cannon, Blunt, Harrod, Mitchell, Frankinton, Highmore, Chamberlain, etc., to organize for an appeal to the president and people against the enforcement of the order. The address asks if the settlers are to be treated as the Israelitish serfs of Russia or an Irish tenantry.

The Campbell Bribery Case.

CINCINNATI, April 23.—The Tom Campbell bribery case will come up for second trial in Judge Robertson's court Thursday, before a strict jury. Rufus B. Smith and C. W. Gerard will again prosecute. It has been said that Judge Robertson would not try the case, owing to the fact that he was a judge in the Campbell disbarment proceeding. The judge said: "It makes no difference to me. I could try my own mother, as far as that is concerned. They can make a motion to enter the case out of my court, and I will see what I will do with it. If I try the case, and think the verdict is wrong, I will set it aside. I don't care what people say about it."

Didn't Stick.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The suit brought by the American art association against the Evening Post for $25,000 damages in consequence of an article printed in the Post charged by the association to be detrimental to the twenty pictures has been dismissed at the plaintiff's costs.

DON'T!

Don't believe that we present an excellent Waterbury Watch with every $15 purchase.

Don't believe that we give a Hat with every Ready-made Suit we sell.

Don't believe that we carry the Largest, Best-selected and Handsomest stock of Goods in the State.

Don't believe that you can get more solid value for your money from us than from any Cincinnati clothing house.

Don't believe that we are getting up, this Spring, Handsomer Work than any other Merchant Tailoring House in the State.

Don't believe any of the above facts until you come to our house and be convinced that all this is literally true. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO.,
